

updated: 6/11/2013 1:02:58 PM

Council Approves Three Charters

InsideIndianaBusiness.com Report

The Indianapolis City-County Council has approved the establishment of additional charter schools. The move involves three new Christel House Academy Inc. charters.

Continued Below...

Indiana Business News

- Indy Bartender Wins National Competition
- Airport to Cut Ribbon on New Terminal Building
- Zoo Leadership Switch Gets Council Approval
- Remy Buys Remainder of Joint Venture
- CTS Corp. to 'Simplify' Some Operations
- Casino Officially Changes Name
- Former Gary Mayor to be Laid to Rest
- Central Indiana Building Permits Increase
- Station Wagon Convention Coming to Fort Wayne

More News...

SUBSCRIBE
E-News, Texts, Breaking News
SIGN UP >>

The organization already operates Christel House DORS, which is a program designed to help high school dropouts earn a high school diploma.

It also has a "College Gateway Program" where students can earn credit through Ivy Tech Community College.

INDIANA
BUSINESS COUNCIL
Get vital statistics
from the Council. >>

The measure establishes three additional Christel House DORS schools.

Before the facilities begin operation, they must receive approval from the council.

Sources: Indianapolis City County Council, Christel House Academy Inc.

Now Hiring in Indiana
Find Jobs >>

IIB Twitter Watch

What do you want from your law firm?

STRATEGIC THINKING

BOSE
McKINNEY
& EVANS LLP

ATTORNEYS AT LAW