Other Key Information:

- Tutoring program has been averaging 74 students per night
- Our teachers’ office hours program every night after school for extra student help, structured group study, and even parent workshops on how to help their student scholars with homework or class projects continues to be well attended
- We hold morning data chats for every teacher. All teachers are part of groups that have a weekly data chat. Topics covered in the data chats thus far have been: Megabinders, Curriculum Maps, Classroom Management/Expectations, NWEA Preparation and Data Evaluation, Classroom Entry Procedures, Consequence Ladders, and Highly Effective Teaching.
- We held our second Expo, Expect More From Your School Expo, on Saturday, August 17th. This Expo featured our clubs, organizations, athletics, and services available to our families and students. Additionally, our fall athletic teams did public practices/scrimmages and announced the names of their players for the families and community to watch. It was exciting to have 124 families in attendance at this family engagement event.
- We held a VIP (Very Important Parent) Family night on Tuesday, August 27th. The focus was around families meeting with teachers and helping families understand our new PowerSchool student information system. We had 46 parents in attendance.
