2012-2013 Performance Analysis

Core Question 1: Is the educational program a success?

1.1. Is the school's academic performance meeting state expectations, as measured by Indiana's accountability system?
Does not meet standard	School has received an "F" for the most recent school year OR has received a "D" for the last two consecutive years.
Approaching standard	School has received a "D" for the most recent school year.
Meets standard	School has received either a "B" or "C" for the most recent school year.
Exceeds standard	School has received an "A" for the most recent school year.

2012-13 Performance: Meets standard

Beginning with the 2011-12 school year, the Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) received a waiver from the United States Department of Education to replace the state's measure of Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) with the A-F accountability system.

In the 2011-12 school year, the Mayor's Office of Education Innovation determined that Core Question 1.1 would use the state's new accountability system based on the above rubric.

Indianapolis Metropolitan High School received a "C" for the most recent school year under the state's A-F school accountability model. Based on its performance in the 2012-13 academic year, the school has earned the rating "Meets standard".

1.2. Are students making substantial and adequate gains over time, as measured using the Indiana Growth Model?
STANDARD	Value-added analysis indicates that more than 75%-89% of tested students made sufficient gains.

2012-13 Performance: Not Applicable.

Indianapolis Metropolitan High School serves grades 9-12. Analysis of substantial and adequate gains over time is only available currently for schools serving grades K-8.

1.3. Is the school outperforming schools that the students would have been assigned to attend?
STANDARD	School's overall performance in terms of both proficiency and/or growth is generally as good as that of the schools the students would otherwise have been assigned to attend.

2012-13 Performance: Not Applicable.

Indianapolis Metropolitan High School serves grades 9-12. Analysis of the school's performance in comparison to schools students would have been assigned to attend is currently only available for schools serving grades K-8.

1.4. Is the school meeting its school-specific educational goals?
STANDARD	School has clearly met its school-specific educational goal.

Not Evaluated. Indianapolis Metropolitan High School did not have school-specific educational goals to be evaluated for 2012-13.
