Indianapolis, IN 46204

More than 173,000 Marion County residents struggle with hunger, including nearly 50,000 children. Pack the Pantries is part of a multi-pronged approach to raise awareness and collaborate with the community around issues of food insecurity and hunger. Pack the Pantries supports the Indianapolis hunger relief efforts of Gleaners Food Bank and Midwest Food Bank during the holiday season when the need is greater. Together we can make a difference.
