

Want to help inspire the next generation of STEM professionals?

Volunteer at the Indy VEX Robotics Championship!

The Mayor's 2014 City of Indianapolis VEX Robotics Championship (IndyVRC) presented by Roche Diagnostics is coming to Bankers Life Fieldhouse on November 15 and 16. This year's event will include including 60 high schools, 80 middle schools, and 20 elementary schools. To make this year a success, we need your help!

Volunteering at the IndyVRC comes in all shapes and sizes so don't hesitate to share just a slice of your weekend to bring hands on STEM learning experiences to hundreds of Indianapolis students.
