

MBA Fellowship in Education Leadership

Nominate your current & emerging school leaders by October 1, 2015, at uindy.edu/mbaed

Nominations are now open for the Woodrow Wilson MBA Fellowship in Education Leadership at the University of Indianapolis. This interdisciplinary program between the UIndy Graduate School of Business and the School of Education integrates best practices in business and education leadership, intensive experience in schools and organizations, and ongoing coaching.

The Woodrow Wilson MBA Fellowship offers students:

- a 13-month program.
- $50,000 stipend to cover full tuition expenses and a laptop.
- applied, problem-based curriculum tailored to school settings.
- immersive leadership role within the fellows' schools during the school year.
- on-campus classes held during two summer sessions.
- emphasis on organizational leadership, marketing, finance, talent management and data analysis.
- preparation for Six Sigma certification.
- three full years of post-graduate executive coaching.

For more information on nominating your emerging leader visit, uindy.edu/mbaed or contact:

Dr. John Somers
Program Director
Director of Graduate Education Program
Associate Professor of Teacher Education
jsomers@uindy.edu
(317) 788-4918

Steve Tokar
Director of Graduate Business Programs
Assistant Professor, School of Business
tokarsa@uindy.edu
(317) 788-4905

To learn more about the background of the Woodrow Wilson MBA Fellowship in Education Leadership, visit <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/ww-ed-mba>.