

Global Connections, Engagement and Exchange: Internationalizing Experiences for Students, Educators, and the Community

June 20, 2016, 8:30AM – 1:30PM

Covenant Christian High School, 7525 West 21st Street, Indianapolis, IN 46214

Keynote Address: Connecting Your Classroom to the World

Speaker: Matt Miller, Author, *Ditch That Textbook

Cultural Exchange via Technology    International Exchange Experiences
Building International Dialogue in Your School and Community
Preparation for the Global Workplace

REGISTER ONLINE ($20) -- <https://www.tfaforms.com/420397>

Presentation Titles Include:

- Using Local Resources to Make Global Connections
- Making Cultural Connections Exciting for All (Moldova, Spain, Slovenia, Brazil)
- Connecting Students (Highlighting Elementary through High School Connections)
- Connecting and Selecting Sister Cities - How to Manage Student Exchange Programs
  - Preparing for the Global Workplace    •International Programs for Students
  - Building Sustainable Multi-Year Travel Experiences for Your School
  - International Exchange, International Travel, and Study Abroad Opportunities
  - Culture and Language Acquisition through International and Domestic Exchange
- The Impact and Influences of Cultural and Academic Exchange, a Participant's Perspective
- Global Learning in Indiana (Internationalized Standards, Status of Global Learning in Indiana, Certificate of Multilingual Proficiency)
  - Sister Cities Idea Exchange

Hosted by:

Indianapolis Sister Cities International Teacher and Student Outreach Committee

Sponsors Include:

Indiana Council for the Social Studies    Indiana Department of Education
Longview Foundation    Indiana Foreign Language Teachers Association
Global Indiana    Sagamore Institute    Covenant Christian High School

PGP Points Certificate Available

Contact Susan Tomlinson (susan.tomlinson.tasoc@gmail.com)

Indy Sister Cities Teacher and Student Outreach Committee

About Indianapolis Sister Cities International (ISCI):

ISCI is a non-profit initiative promoting Indianapolis as an international city. This program provides strong connections with the rest of the world through education, business and cultural initiatives.

